

SOUTHWEST IDAHO SPORTS CAR CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP AND PARTICIPATION RECOGNITION

1. SCOPE

- . 1.1 The purpose of the Championship and Recognition awards shall be to reward outstanding performance by competitors, both men and women, in areas of competition as well as overall achievements in all areas of SWISCC activities. [L] [SEP]
- . 1.2 Recognition shall take the form of trophies and/or other suitable awards to be made at the end of the activity year in December. [L] [SEP]

1.2.1 The following areas will be awarded:

Rallyst(s) of the Year - refer to Sec. 3.

NOVICE, SOP, SOP+ or NAV Champion(s) refer to Sec. 3.

Include Novice with the others as we decided to treat them as a separated class for points.

Participation Award - refer to Sec 7.

~~[L] [SEP] Novice Champion - refer to Sec. 8. [L] [SEP]~~

2. ELIGIBILITY

- . 2.1 Competitors must be members in good standing (dues paid). [L] [SEP]
- . 2.2 Dues must be paid by the March meeting or the competitor will lose any accumulated points up to the time dues are paid. New rallyist will be allowed to retain the points they earned in the 30 day period prior to becoming paid members. [L] [SEP]
- . 2.3 Competitors must attend a minimum of 50% of meetings. [L] [SEP]

2.3.1 If the competitor cannot attend a majority of meetings through circumstances beyond their control, the competitor may petition the Points Committee in writing. The Points Committee may rule to allow some form of make up or waive the requirement on the merits of each individual case.

2.4 Competitors must assist in at least one event during the calendar year. (Suspended).

2.4.1 Assistance may take the form of Event Master, pre-runner, checkpoint crew, event organizer, etc.

3. RALLYE EVENTS

3.1 "Rallyst of the Year" Championship shall be determined by the total points received in allowed events. The competitor in NOV, SOP, SOP+ or NAV class with the most Rallye points at the end of the year shall be deemed Rallyst of the Year

- . 3.1.1 Other suitable awards shall be made for remaining class achievements. ^[L]_[SEP]
- . 3.1.2 If a class has fewer the three (3) competitors that class shall be incorporated into the larger class. ^[L]_[SEP]
- . 3.2 Points will be assigned separately in 4 classes.
 - . 3.2.1 Points will not be transferable from class to class. ^[L]_[SEP]
 - . 3.2.2 If there are less than three cars in a class those cars will be factored against first overall. ^[L]_[SEP]
- . 3.3 All rallye points will be based on the following formulas: ^[L]_[SEP]
 - A. Class Factor = ((Maximum Number of points allowed per leg x No. of Legs)- (Class Winners Score))/100 ^[L]_[SEP]
 - B. Individual Club Points = 100-((Individual Score - Class Winners Score)/Class Factor) ^[L]_[SEP]

Examples: In a three-leg rallye 1st SOP had a score of 127, 2nd SOP had 136, 3rd SOP had 207 and DLBF had 815.

1st SOP gets 100 points. The factor $7.73 = ((300 \times 3) - 127) / 100$ 2nd SOP gets 98.836 points. $98.836 = 100 - ((136 - 127) / 7.73)$ 3rd SOP gets 89.651 points. $89.651 = 100 - ((207 - 127) / 7.73)$ D. DLBF gets 10.966.234 points. $10.966 = 100 - ((815 - 127) / 7.73)$

Points will be rounded to the nearest 1/1000 point.

No one may receive less than 1 point.

The driver and navigator will receive equal points.

One bonus point will be given to the First Overall Car (101 points total).

Rallye Master(s) shall receive 100 rallye points, applicable only once per year.

Checkpoint crews and pre-runners shall receive 90 rallye points, applicable only once per year.

It shall be the responsibility of the Event Master to submit a list of names of those helping man checkpoints to the Points Committee within ten days of the event. A complete listing of entrants and scores are to be submitted at the same time. Failure to turn in score sheets within ten days may lead to elimination of Event-Master points at the discretion of the Points Committee.

These calculations reflect a maximum allowable leg score of 300

. 3.11 The points for all rallyes greater than six (6) rallyes will be eliminated at the end of the year in deference of those who are unable to attend all events. If all events are attended, the lowest score(s) will be eliminated. [L] [SEP]

- . 3.12 Competitors must compete in at least 60% of the scheduled events in the same class throughout the year to qualify for a Class Championship award. [L] [SEP]
- . 3.13 In the case that for any reason 50% or more of the legs of a rallye are disallowed, the Points Committee shall meet and decide whether sufficient rallye remained to warrant the awarding of club points. In no case will this affect the awarding of the trophies for that event. [L] [SEP]
- 4. Non-Rallye Competitive Events.
 - . 4.1 Non-Rallye competitive events which participants are ranked by how well they did in comparison to other participants. Participation may be individuals or teams. Team members will receive the same points [L] [SEP]
 - . 4.2 Points are as follows: [L] [SEP]
- 5. First Place 12 [L] [SEP] Event-Master(s) 11 [L] [SEP] Second Place Third Place Helper(s) [L] [SEP] Fourth Place 9
